

Our Mission

To work toward obtaining the basic human right of competent adults who are suffering from irreversible illness or intractable pain and who no longer want to live, to be able to end their lives on their own terms.

To offer free service to every member who applies and qualifies for our Exit Guide services, which includes compassionate counseling, home visits, information and guidance.

Yes! I want to support your mission and know that should I ever need Exit Guide services, they will be available to me.
